REPORT NO. 25X1X

During January a school to train personnel, probably for the takeover of Hong Kong, has been operating in Canton. The administration is in the hands of Communists from the Canton and Kwanchowan municipal governments, who were withdrawn from their positions for this work.

Comment. More than usual secrecy has surrounded the setting up of this training activity. It is known, however, that selected political workers called from the field have just completed 25 days of special training, and it is assumed that it is for work in Hong Kong.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 15 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
